LEXINGTON FANS

To Meet Again Tonight—Team Will Probably Stay in Blue Grass City—Plans Made For Raising Funds.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—At a meeting held in the office of Magistrate Graves in the courthouse at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, it was decided by the stockholders of the Lexington Baseball Club and business men present to have another meeting at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night, to which the directors of the Lexington Board of Commerce will be invited. A committee composed of Howard Guyn, William E. Stagg and David B. Honaker called on Secretary H. L. Burch following the meeting and Mr. Burch promised to notify the directors of the Tuesday night session.

Several plans for raising the money necessary to keep the club in Lexington were discussed yesterday morning. The Board of Commerce will be asked to help, and it is thought that they will do all they can in a financial way for the club. Committee will probably be appointed tonight to visit every business man in Lexington and get subscriptions. About one-third of the amount needed to finance the club has already been promised by several public spirited men, among them being President Brower, Hogan Yancey, William E. Stagg, James T. Looney and David Honaker, who promised $100 apiece.

A tag day has also been suggested, and it is planned for the players to sell the tags on the street for any amount the purchaser feels able to pay. Plans for playing a game at Cynthiana on July 19 were also discussed, and it is a sure bet that the team would draw a good crowd in that city, as Rorer and McClellan, two of the stars of the team, had from that city. Billy White, the Colt third-sacker, promised to make the trip to that city and make arrangements for the game. The Colt players are very anxious to stay in this city instead of going to Huntington, as most of them have been in Lexington long enough to feel that it is their home.

If the members of the Board of Commerce can be made to realize that a baseball club which can put up the game the Colts have played for the past two months is a big asset to the city and also one of the best advertisements Lexington can possibly have, the club will stay in Lexington. The directors of the league have agreed to wait until the question is definitely decided, and the Colts will probably play their first game of the new season Thursday if the necessary funds are raised.

BUSINESS AND SOCIAL MEETING

The Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. Church will hold its regular monthly business and social meeting at the church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present and friends are invited. The fourth vice-president promises to have several new games to be played and an art gallery will also furnish some fun.

PICTURE PLEASURES

The great production "The Dumb Girl of Portici" featuring Mlle. Anna Pavlova, the great Russian dancer, drew great crowds at the Washington Opera House yesterday at both matinee and evening shows.

MRS. C. C. DEGMAN

Passed Away at Her Home Near Springdale Last Evening About 7:30 O'clock—Was One of the Most Prominent Women in This Section of the State.

Mrs. C. C. Degman died at her home near Springdale last evening at 7:30 o'clock after a lingering illness of about six weeks.

Mrs. Anna M. Doyle Degman was born in Fleming county September 25, 1848. She was married to C. C. Degman February 14th, 1868, and since that time lived in the old Degman home near Springdale. Seven children were born to them, five of whom survive, Clarence G. of Cincinnati; Mrs. P. F. Martin of Edmonston, Canada; Mrs. G. W. Hook of Springdale; Julius S. of White Salmon, Washington, and John T. of Kingman, Ariz.

Mrs. Degman was a member of the Third Street M. E. Church of Maysville and had been a member of this church since her marriage. She was a consistent Christian and was very prominent in church work. She established the Methodist Sunday School at Springdale. She was a member of the Maysville W. C. T. U. and of the Berea, Ky., Capt. James West W. R. C. She will be remembered as one of the greatest workers in the Old Settlers' Reunions and the G. A. R. meetings. She was secretary of the sixteenth and Tenth Kentucky Regimental Associations.

The Ledger loses one of its best friends by the death of Mrs. Degman. For over forty years she has written for the Daily Republican and the Daily Public Ledger. Her husband was one of the founders of the first Republican newspaper in this county and she always showed a great interest in its welfare.

Mrs. Degman had been a patient sufferer for about six weeks but frequently expressed her complete resignation to God's will. "The peace which passeth all understanding" impressed everyone coming in her presence.

Her work in God's service, with her pen, words and actions have been incalculable, so, in direct opposition to the pessimistic Immortal Bard we confidently aver that "the good this woman has done will live after her" and the good will not be "interred with her bones."

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from the Bethany Church. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. J. M. Lital of the Third Street M. E. Church. The burial will be made in the Bethany cemetery by the side of her husband.

POLICE COURT

In Police Court yesterday the following cases were disposed of:
Lee Spencer, drunk, $6.50.
W. S. Taylor, driving an automobile without displaying license tag thereon, $13.90.
Tom Dempsey, drunk, $6.50.
Laura Gray, breach of the peace, $6.50.
This is one of the largest days the court has had for some time and reflects much on the police force as their efficiency makes the wrongdoer think twice before he does anything against the law.

REV. WALLER BETTER

Word has been received here that Dr. Maurice Waller, who has been in Kenova, W. Va., for the past six months on account of ill health has been taken to Chicago by his daughter, Miss Phoebe Waller, and his sister, Miss Lillie Waller. He will make his home in Chicago with his sister.

ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF GUEST

Miss Mary Page Maltby entertained a number of her friends at her beautiful home in Washington last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Jeanie Johnson, of Atlanta, Ga. Cards were the order of the evening. A large number were present and all enjoyed themselves to a late hour.

BRIDGE MOVED

The C. & O. bridge at Cabin Creek just above Springdale has been moved over several feet on account of the east abutment in the westbound track being cracked. The abutment will be fixed as soon as possible. The tracks have been moved over about twelve feet.

SELLS POOL ROOM

Mr. Fred A. Diener through Sherman Arn, local real estate dealer, sold his pool room located at Second and Sutton streets to Mr. Ashby Burgoyne, who took charge of the place at once.

Mr. James Gullfoyle of the Maysville neighborhood was brought to this city Sunday and taken to Haywood Hospital where he was operated on for appendicitis.

DISCHARGE PRISONER

Ralph Martin, the man who was charged with shooting Martin Sweeney at South Ripley on last Thursday, was discharged by County Judge W. H. Rice yesterday.

Sweeney and Martin had been to Ripley and had crossed the river and were on their way home. They got into an argument and Sweeney drew a revolver on Martin as the latter said. Martin grabbed him and while fighting for the possession of the weapon, it was discharged three times, the third shot taking refuge in Sweeney's back. Martin went to Dover and gave himself up and was brought here. Sweeney went to his home in Augusta. His wound did not prove serious.

The witnesses of the shooting were supposed to be present at a trial to be held Saturday afternoon. They did not arrive and Judge Rice said that if they did not show up by Monday he would dismiss the case. Monday arrived and no witnesses showed up so Martin was dismissed.

ATTENTION, RED MEN
